THE WORLD ' 's to produce THEIR EQUAL! We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all discases which flesh is helr to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable prepara-tion, which every intelligent. Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indignation, Dyspopaia, Diseases of the Nerveus Bystem, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Fonales, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are UNSURPASSED! For Soro Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Saamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial. As a leverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and de-licious to the taste. They produce all the exhiliarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intexiciting; and effects of Brandy or Wine, without moving sing are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and cuttrely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Edquers with which the

The Recent War Operations in Mary-land.

From the Correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer. Cleggett Fitzhugh, a nephew of General Smith, and the individual who arrested Cook, of John Brown fame, was captured with the ammunition wagous of Long-

The dead body of Gen. Garland was found concealed in one of the wagons captured by the party of cavalry between Hagerstown and Williamsport. I hear, also, from a private source, that

Gen. Harney-a brigadier general in the rebel service, and nephew of Major General Harney, of the United States service-was cilled at the gorges of the mountains near Middletown, where McCleffan whipped the rebel rear on Sunday. Colonel Stroge, 19th Virginia, and Col.

lames, of the 3d South Carolina battalion, were killed on Sunday last and their bodies left in our posession. The South Carolina brigade was very severely handled. Among the rebel officers known to be killed was Col. Strong, of the 18th Virginia. The latter's body was obtained to-day by a flag of truce.

THE SURRENDER OF HARPER'S FERRY. The rebels appeared on Thursday at Solomon's Gap, about seven miles from Mary. land Heights, which are opposite Harper's Ferry. On Saturday morning, about daybreak, Gen. Hall advanced with twenty housand men upon the heights. Our men posted there immediately replied and a brisk engagement ensued. At first the enemy was somewhat repulsed, but they again rallied and attempted to outflank our right. In this they did not succeed.

At three o'clock in the afternoon our forces were outflanked on the left. Theengagement lasted there only for a short time, and the men retired in accordance with an order from Col. Miles, the commanding officer. The guns on the heights were spiked and thrown over the precipice. The forces on Maryland Heights all then crossed the river and entered Harper's Ferry. On Sunday morning the fight was renewed with much vigor. It was then all confined to the Virginia side. Our men were on Boliver Heights, which lie on the north of the town, and the rebels on London Heights, which are south. Our artillery fire was kept up briskly all day, but no great damage was done.

Maryland Heights now being in posses sion of the rebels, our forces were menaced on both sides. This continued until dusk Early on Monday morning the rebles ad vanced with four divisions; simultaneously they opened fire with shot and shell from seven batteries. By this time Jackson had advanced with twenty thousand additional | Dye Stuffs, Machine Gil and Kerosene Gil o'clock, when we were compelled to surrender. This was caused by overpowering numbers. Col. Miles ordered a flag of truce to be hoisted. Three were run up before the firing censed. As the last one was being adjusted on the pole, Col. Miles, who was standing by, was struck by a frag ment of shell in the leg, and it is feared that he cannot survive amputation.

Our men numbered about six thousand. The enemy had four times that number. Our loss in killed and wounded was about two hundred. The enemy's loss was at least five hundred. Our forces surrendered all their arms, and their accoutrements were taken. Officers and men were then all paroled. Our artillery was also captured. The rebels, on Monday afternoon and this morning, commenced crossing in vast numbers into Virginia. At least fifty thousand men must have passed over the pontogon

The Fortitude of Our Wounded.

The superintendent of a company of Massachusetts army nurses, who has just returned from Washington, gives a please ant account of the bearing of our brave soldiers under their suffering from sickness and wounds. At the hospitals nearest the battle field, where the worst cases were received, he saw nothing but cheerful resignation and indomitable fortitude. Our sodiera accept the incidents of wounds, feverand lack of ordinary conveniences as inevitable occurrences, and lose neither their patience nor their faith.

One poor fellow, who had received a shot through his body, requested the surgeons to attend first to the wants of a comrade whose leg had been shattered by a cannon ball. "See to him first," said he, "he is more badly off than I am." Yet this brave man, who forgot his own sufferings in compassion for those of others, was afterwards found to be dangerously hurt, and is now very ill in Washington.

Another soldier, getting out of an ambulance without assistance, walked into the hospital with a firm step, but expired within an hour. The ball which hit him be numbed his nerves, and he had no idea that his wounds were mortal. One touching incident was related to in from the Centreville field, terribly wounded by a musket ball, which had entered the right side of his neck and emerged under the left ear, carrying away part of his tongue and lucerating the wind pipe. Unable to speak or eat, this soldier lay helpless for a day or two, receiving no nourishment because he could swallow nothing, and indicating his wishes by signs Opening the hand signified "Yes"; closing it, "No." In the third night after his arrival at the hospital, a sudden attack of hemorrhage ended his life. To the last his eyes were fixed upon the portraits of his wife and child, which he had caused to be hung upon the wall by his bedside.

Another soldier, wounded in the leg amused himself by carving rings from peach stones, producing creditable work and distributing his specimens among the nurses who attended him. They are preserved as keepsakes. This man, so dexterous with at the lowest prices, is at the Wall Paper Depot, corner of Main and Milwankes streets. Jackman & Smith and Milwankes streets. JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1862.

The Recent War Operations in Mary-

From the Correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer Cleggett Fitzhugh, a nephew of General and the individual who arrested Cook, of John Brown fame, was captured with the ammunition wagons of Long-

I hear, also, from a private source, that Gen. Harney—a brigadier general in the rebel service, and nephew of Major General Harney, of the United States service-was killed at the gorges of the mountains near Middletown, where McClenan whipped the rebel rear on Sunday.

Colonel Stroge, 19th Virginia, and Col.
James, of the 3d South Carolina battalion, were killed on Sunday last and their bodies left in our posession. The South Carolina brigade was very severely handled. Among the rebel officers known to be killed was Col. Strong, of the 18th Virginia.

The latter's body was obtained to-day by a flag of truce. THE SURRENDER OF HARPER'S FERRY. The rebels appeared on Thursday at Soiomon's Gap, about seven mile, from Mary-land Heights, which are opposite Harper's Ferry. On Saturday morning, about day-break, Gen. Hall advanced with twenty thousand men upon the heights. Our men posted there immediately replied and a brisk engagement ensued. At first the enemy was somewhat repulsed, but they again rallied and attempted to outflank our right. In this they did not succeed. At three o'clock in the afternoon our forces were outflanked on the left. The en-gagement lasted there only for a short time, and the men retired in accordance with an order from Col. Miles, the commanding officer. The guns on the heights were spiked and thrown over the precipice. The forces on Maryland Heights all then crossed the river and entered Harper's Ferry. On Sunday morning the fight was renewed with much vigor. It was then all confined to the Virginia side. Our men were on Bolivar Heights, which lie on the north of the town, and the rebels on London Heights, which are south. Our artillery fire was kept up briskly all day, but no great damage was done.

Maryland Heights now being in posses sion of the rebels, our forces were menaced on both sides. This continued natil dusk. Early on Monday morning the rebles advanced with four divisions; simultaneously they opened fire with shot and shell from seven batteries. By this time Jackson had advanced with twenty thousand additional men. The fight was terrific until nine o'clack, when we were compelled to surrender. This was caused by overpowering numbers. Col. Miles ordered a flag of truce to be hoisted. Three were run up before the firing ceased. As the last one was being adjusted on the pole, Col. Miles, who was standing by, was struck by a frag ment of shell in the leg, and it is feared that he cannot survive amputation. Our men numbered about six thousand. The enemy had four times that number. Our loss in killed and wounded was about two hundred. The enemy's loss was at least five hundred. Our forces surrendered all their arms, and their accourtements were taken. Officers and men were then all paroled. Our artillery was also captured. The rebels, on Monday afternoon and this morning, commenced crossing in vast numbers into Virginia. At least fifty thousand men must have passed over the pontocon

The Fortitude of Our Wounded.

The superintendent of a company of Massachusetts army nurses, who has just returned from Washington, gives a pleasand pledges himself to his friends to furnish at all times an article that for durability of wear, quality of stock and neatness of fit will give ant account of the bearing of our brave soldiers under their suffering from sickness and wounds. At the hospitals nearest the battle field, where the worst cases were re-Tendering his thanks for the liberal custom hereto-fore given the shop, the proprietor asks old friends and the public generally to give him a call. E. THOMAS. Janesville, April 22d, 1862. ap22dawti ceived, he saw nothing but cheerful resignation and indomitable fortitude. Our sodiers accent the incidents of wounds, fevers and lack of ordinary conveniences as inevitable occurrences, and lose neither their patience nor their faith.

One poor fellow, who had received a shot through his body, requested the surgeons to attend first to the wants of a conrade whose leg had been shattered by a cannon ball. "See to him first," said he, "he is more badly off than I am." Yet this brave man, who forgot his own sufferings in compassion for those of others, was afterwards found to be dangerously hurt, and is now very ill in Washington. Another soldier, getting out of an ambu-lance without assistance, walked into the hospital with a firm step, but expired with-in an hour. The ball which hit him benumbed his nerves, and he had no idea that his wounds were mortal.

One touching incident was related to us. A young Michigan soldier was brought in from the Centreville field, terribly wounded by a musket ball, which had entered the right side of his neck and emer-ged under the left ear, carrying away part of his tongue and lacerating the wind pipe. Unable to speak or eat, this soldier lay helpless for a day or two, receiving no UNSURPASED!

Opening the hand signified "Yes"; clos-ing it, "No." In the third night after his arrival at the hospital, a sudden attack of hemorrhage ended his life. To the last his eyes were fixed upon the portraits of his wife and child, which he had caused to be hung upon the wall by his bedside Another soldier, wounded in the leg, amused himself by carving rings from peach stones, producing creditable work and distributing his specimens among the nurses who attended him. They are preserved as keepsakes. This man, so dexterous with his knife, was a Yankee, who had nothing else to do than to entertain himself with the pastime of "whittling."

The Escape of the Rebel Army.

The news last night and this morning renders it certain that the rebelfarmy has crossed the Potomac. They were fairly beaten in the battle of Wednesday, and under a pretence that they desired to bury their dead, on Thursday, there was a cessation of fighting. They, probably, took advantage of the armistice and prepared for a retreat, which was accomplished successfully, on Thursday night and Friday forenoon. The possession of Harper's Ferry greatly aided them in their design, but they crossed, also, at other points. The result is not what we had been led to expect from the previous announcement, that the enemy were hemmed in and must surrender or be nonibilated. But they are defeated and driven out of Maryland, and we hope will yet he overtaken and destroyed.

This afternoon it is reported that Burnside has occupied Harper's Ferry, the encmy leaving the connon and stores which they had capture l. The federal troops crossed the bridge and pursued the enemy as far as Martinsburg. If this is true, the chances are much improved of overtaking the rebel army before it gets far up the Shenandoah valley. We hope Sigel will turn up somewhere on their flank before they get to Winchester.

Kirby Of course, nothing that General Fremont | Smith, our Louisville dispatches say, is says suits the Sentinel. It naturally takes | marching to form a junction with Bragg, exception to his recommendation of the in order to engage Buell. The movements immediate abolition of slavery as a means of suppressing the rebellion; and it especially objects to his proposition to take every means to make that measure practical, whenever it is adopted. If the Sentinel should ever favor the abolition of slavery, we infer that it would, by all means, desire it to be a sham; a mere pretence of doing something to satisfy the public, while the institution itself should not be harmed.

The Sentinel thinks Gen. Fremont is inconsistent in this, that he proposes emancipation and at the same time suggests that it be made practical by additional means, besides the president's proclamation. We see no inconsistency here. A mere proclamation would be dead without works under it. It would be like the passage of a are mounted on every height in the neighconfiscation act without any attempt to enborhood of Covington. There is, in addiforce it. A proclamation of freedom would give notice to four millions of slaves, scating some 3,000 cavalry. Several thousand tered througout the rebellious states, that veteran soldiers are among them. Gen. A. J. Smith, of the First U. S. Dragoons, is in we are their friends, offering the boon which command, Gen. Lew. Wallace having been they most desire-freedom. These slaves, who are the only producers of the subsistence of the rebel armies, would work for us, and cease to labor for the support of their masters. "You take my life when you take the means whereby I live," might then be said by the rebels. In addition to ceasing to work for the rebals, the ablebodied slaves should be employed in the army to fight against their former masters, or in any capacity in which they can be made most useful. These are some of the means which would " make abolition effective" in suppressing the rebellion.

There is danger that the prosecution of the war, according to present methods, will not abolish slavery. It is possible, instead, ments of the assessors under the United that slavery may triumph over the country, | States tax law, we learn that a position was if left to itself, and no assault made upon it. Gen. Frement proposes to make sure of its destruction now, when we have the power and the right to do it; and in that he is wise, for we shall never be safe in the future from rebellions, if we suffer it to live. Slavery or the republic must die, and why not destroy the cause of the war immediately, and not put off till to-morrow what should he done to-day? Why not?

Washington, Sept. 18. To BRIG, GEN. TUTTLE, Comm'd'g : You are authorized to turn over to responsible committees negro women and children, who will take them in charge and provide them with employment and support in the northern states, and you may furnish transportation at the government expense. [Signed] EDWIN M. STANTON,

Secretary of War. The wish of Gen. Tuttle is this-that wherever persons are desirous of employing these colored people, all they have to do to get them, is to appoint a committee of responsible citizens who will make the application, and who will exercise something like a guardianship over them, and see that they fall into proper hands, and that they MILITARY ITEMS .- Capt. Throughout the south the most extravagant reports are believed with regard to the ebel success in the east.

They also have it reported that Corinth evacuated by our forces; that the town is destroyed, and that the federal army is devastating the country us it moves on. Cinicago, Sept. 19.

Private information, from reliable soures, received here this morning, brings the intelligence that Munfordsville, Kentucky, was surrendered to the rebels under Bragg on Wednesday last, after a hard battle. Our troops fought bravely until their ammunition was all exhausted.

We have no particulars, but learn that Gen. Ruell's forces did not reach Munfords ville in time to save it.

Bragg is reported to be advancing his army upon Louisville. Gen. Royle, who is

United States arsenal this afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in a large frame building known girls were employed in the building at the ime of the diseater, of whom 75 or 80 were until the entire building was destroyed.

Those who could not escape at the time were burned up. The scene was most appalling. Dead hodies lay in heaps as they had fallen, and in some places, where the heat was intense, whitened bones could bo seen through the smoke and flames. In other places large masses of blackened flesh were visible. Up to the present time sixty-three bodies have been taken from the rains. The cause of the explosion is not being either wounded or too much fatigued known, but it is admitted by all to be accidental.

GALLIPOLIS, Sept. 18, 1862. The salt works between Charleston and and Camp Platt were not destroyed by our forces, all but two fell uninjured into the rehels hands with large quantities of salt, and are now being run by the confederates

The rebel loss at Fayette was about five times as great as ours. The total value of government stores destroyed in Lighthurn's etreat is estimated at half a million. Lightburn's trains all safe in Ohio, except a small one cut off on the 10th. The seriously wounded are doing well

Capt. Hatfield is still alive, but will hardly survive. Col. Lightburn was here to-day. He estimates the total loss in the retreat at 100 killed and wounded. WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.

Medical Inspector Mussey has made a report on hospital abuses, in this city, showng that in some hospitals gross frauds have been committed in furnishing food to patients, and that false diet lists were kept for public inspection.

The Union Relief Association has pubished a report alleging existences of other and grosser abuses in some other hospitals and announcing that the surgeon general has given assurances that they shall be investigated and corrected.

MORNING DISPATORES. Louisville, Sept. 19.

Wednesday morning, the rebels took about 4,000 prisoners, who are reported to have been subsequently paroled, comprising the 6th, 67th and 89th Indiana, 400 men of the 5th Indiana, two companies 17th and 74th Indiana, one company of the 1st Wirconsin, one company of the Louisville provost guard, 70 recruits for the 33d Kentucky, and the 4th Ohio battery of six guns, with four other guns in position. The loss at Munfordsville, 'previously stated, was in enemy. By 10 o'clock every road was Sunday's fight. There were two or three growded with our troops and trains moving hours of skirmishing on Tuesday, between the sharpshooters of both parties. The Ureek bridge. rebels did not attack us in force in Sunday's fight.

Gen. Chalmers made an attack on our forces with eleven regiments, and on Tuesday night Buckner's division was added to this force. The firing on Theaday was a rebel feint to enable them to secure the north bank of the river. In that affair we lost 20 killed and 4 or 5 wounded. Eleven of the enemy were killed. Very many reports are circulating from down the road, he transmission of which were forbidden atteristic proceedings: by the military authorities, who, however, entertain the hope and believe the proparneedily clear Kentucky of her rebel in HARRISHURG, Sept. 19. A gentleman from Chambersburg, this evening, says: All the troops stationed there have been sent to Hagerstown and Reynolds said they might go home and be damned, and disgrace would forever rest on their shoulders. After the General's reply they finally went over the border. Gov. Curtin is still at Hagerstown. A feeling of frightens us." perfect security is now felt in official circles Quite a number of wounded have arrived here and adother points on the Cumberland Valley road. The news of McClellan's great victory achieved to-day, was received urging to be sent forward that they may yet assist in the great work. The telegraph is now open to Boonesboro.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 19. The body of Gen. Manafield arrived here o-day, and is being embalmed. The 87th Ohio, three mouths men from Harper's Ferry, passed through to night for Phila delphia, on their way home.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. A Washington dispatch states that a cav alry reconnoisance from Heintelman's head quarter's, yesterday morning, accomplished one of the most rapid and brilliant achieve ments of the compaign. They went within three miles of Thoroughfare Gap, perform ing the distance of 80 miles in less than 20 hours. Near Thoroughfare Gap they dis covered a rebel force acting as hodyguard to Ewell who was in an ambulance, badly wounded, being escorted towards Richmond Three of the hodgenard were captured to gether with about 30 more prisoners, several of whom were officers, and some wag ons. This report was sent by Birney.

New York, Sept. 20. The Herald's Washington dispatch has the following information: It is reported here that the rebels, last night, destroyed the new bridge at Harper's Ferry, and blow up the piers. They also destroyed everything possible to be destroy- First Premium in Illinois, Ohio & Michigan ed at Harper's Ferry and along the line of the road to Martinsburg, including the splendid bridge known as the Pillar bridge at that point. This morning there remained only a small force of rebels at Bolivar Heights, and one company at Sandy Hook,

The rebels took advantage of the cassa tion of hostilities yesterday, to make all necessary arrangements for their retreat their main body crossing the river at the nearest point, some accounts state near Harper's Ferry, others at dam No. 4, the s at Hamburg and Van Dorn is coming latter probably their principal crossing .-There are flying rumors of an engagement to day, but it is ascertained that the firing proceeded from our flying artillery attack-ing the rear guard of the retreating rebel

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 19-Midnight, Forney's Press has just received highly interesting intelligence from McClellan's army, up to noon to day, which the editor kindly furnishes to the associated press. The substance of its special correspond enco is briefly as follows: Early last night the enemy commenced crossing at Shepardstown bridge and two fords above and below it. During the night McClellan ndvanced a battery and shelled them from the surrounding hills. The dead and wounded found this morning evinced the ability of our signal officers in directing the fire of our guns, in discov ering the movements of the enemy.

Early this morning Pleasanton was dis patched in hot pursuit with two batteries and two regiments of infantry, through a BURNED TO DEATH.—Nellie, oldest daughter of Charles E. The loss of generals and field officers in our army is so large as to be unaccountable. Rebel deserters represent the loss of the enemy's officers equally severe.

> It was understood that Burnside has crossed into Virginia via. Harper's Ferry and is moving on the enemy. Deserters report that the recent movement of the rebels in escaping into Virginia was solely conducted by Stonewall Jackson. The other chief officers, Lee, Longstreet, &c., to be efficient.

They also, state that it was believed in the rebel army that a force of federal troops had passed through Thoroughfare Gap and intercepted their advance, and they supposed the movement was under the direction of Sigel, of whom they stand in great dread.

The Escape of the Rebel Army.

The news last night and this morning renders it certain that the rebel army has crossed the Potomac. They were fairly beaten in the battle of Wednesday, and under a pretence that they desired to bury their dead, on Thursday, there was a cessation of fighting. They, probably, took advantage of the armistice and prepared for a retreat, which was accomplished successfully, on Thursday night and Friday forenoon. The possession of Harper's Ferry greatly aided them in their design, but they crossed, also, at other points. The result is not what we had been led to expect from the previous announcement, that the cnemy were hemmed in and must surrender or be annihilated. But they are defeated and driven out of Maryland, and we hope will yet be overtaken and destroyed.

This afternoon it is reported that Burn side has occupied Harper's Ferry, the enemy leaving the cannon and stores which they had capture !. The federal troops crossed the bridge and pursued the enemy as far as Martinsburg. If this is true, the chances are much improved of overtaking the rebel army before it gets far up the Shenandoah valley. We hope Sigel will turn up somewhere on their flank before they get to Winchester.

General Fremont and the Abolition of Slavory.

The Milwaukee Sentiuel publishes the cially objects to his proposition to take every means to make that measure practical. whenever it is adopted. If the Sentinel should ever favor the abolition of alavery, we infer that it would, by all means, desire it to be a sham; a mere pretence of doing institution itself should not be harmed.

The Sentinel thinks Gen. Fremont is inconsistent in this, that he proposes emancipation and at the same time suggests that it be made practical by additional means, besides the president's proclamation. We see no inconsistency here. A mere proclamation would be dead without works under it. It would be like the passage of a confiscation act without any attempt to enforce it. A proclamation of freedom would give notice to four millions of slaves, scating some 3,000 cavalry. Several thousand tered throughout the rebellious states, that veteran soldiers are among them. Gen. A. we are their friends, offering the boon which J. Smith, of the First U. S. Dragoous, is in give notice to four millions of slaves, scatthey most desire-freedom. Our army would then meet in the south what it does not now find, active friends, giving them needed information and the aid of acclimated muscles, to relieve our volunteers of much of the hard duties of war. These slaves, who are the only producers of the subsistence of the rebel armies, would work promoted. for us, and cease to labor for the support of their masters. "You take my life when you take the means whereby I live," might then be said by the rebels. In addition to ceasing to work for the rebels, the ablebodied slaves should be employed in the army to fight against their former masters, or in any capacity in which they can be made most useful. These are some of the means which would " make abolition effective" in suppressing the rebellion. There is danger that the prosecution of the war, according to present methods, will not abolish slavery. It is possible, instead, that slavery may trinmph over the country, if left to itself, and no assault made upon it. Gen. Fremont proposes to make sure of its destruction now, when we have the power and the right to do it; and in that he is wise, for we shall never be safe in the fature from rebellions, if we suffer it to live. Slavery or the republic must die, and why not destroy the cause of the war immediately, and not put off till to-morrow what should he done to day? Why not?

RACINE, Sept. 15, 1862. A crowded audience in Titus' Hall was addressed Saturday evening last by Cols. Saunders and Lyon, and by Judge Doo

The speech of Col. S. was able, earnest and patriotic. He believes the war must be carried on till the rebellion is put down. The President must be sustained, and the administration must be sustained, whatever may be the private opinion of this thing or person, or of that. The slavery question is solving itself—the necessity of its solution being upon us—and in favor of free-dom. Slaves are daily coming into our bringing wagons, mules and provisions, and are received and set to work. Said Col. S.: If President Lincoln should leave it to me to decide of which I would despoil a rebel master, a gang of slaves or a lot of corn, I would surely take the slaves

—I would take the cause and leave the efthe cause. The object of confiscation is to our cause. "hurt the enemy." In conclusion he made an earnest appeal for volunteers to fill up his own regiment. To meet certain charges that have been circulated against him and his command, he brought a letter from Gen. Dix, speaking in flattering terms of the officers and men of the 19th Wisconsin regiment. Col. Lyon, who has but recently risen from a bed of sickness, was too feeble to speak more than two or three minutes. He urged the duty of coming forward to the help of the nation, in this hour of her fiery trial. His remarks had the ring of true manhood and genuine patriotism in them. Would there were more such men!

Judge Doolittle remarked that the war ot '76 secured freedom to the white man; the war of '12 purchased the freedom of the seas; and that this war would end in secaring the freedom of the negro. This was inevitable, without the introduction of paper bullets, confiscation laws, or edicts of emancipation. The rebellion can and must and will be crushed-but it can be crushed only by fighting.

Either Judge Doolittle is slightly mistaken about the object of the war of '76, or else Thomas Jefferson was. The latter wrote a "declaration of independence" at the time, in which "ALL MEN" were included—the author being so explicit about it as to put the greatest emphasia upon MEN when he referred to the African race in the original draft, going to the trouble to print the word in capitals with his pen. Judge Doolitrle is now on the same platform with Chief Justice Teney, and if he should be appointed to a seat on the bench, these two judges would cordially unite in the doctrine that the African has no rights which the white man is bound to respect. We should have some hope that the report of the Judge's speech does him injustice, but that his recent speeches in the senate confirm rather than disprove it.

We also regret that Judge D. feels it within the line of his duty to disparage the confiscation law for which he voted. His constituents would be much better pleased if he would unite with them in insisting upon its faithful execution. It is now a law of the land, and should be respected, obeyed and enforced.

SURRENUER OF MUMPORDSVILLE. - The Cincinnati Gazette of Friday says: Mumfordsville, Ky., was surrendered to the reb els on Wednesday morning, the garrison numbering over 4,000, it is said. Bragg surrounded the place with an army 30,000 strong. The prize was a valuable one to the rebels. In addition to the prisoners they secured 4,000 stand of arms, 10 pieces of artillery, with the usual portion of supplies. Nothing is said about Buell. He has been watching Bragg closely were told, speech of General Fremont "by request." but he must have lost sight of him. It naturally takes marching to form a junction with Bragg, exception to his recommendation of the in order to engage Buell. The movements were burt. The gunboats landed and gave larging to be sent forward that they may exception to his recommendation of the in order to engage Buell. The movements immediate abolition of slavery as a means on both sides are important, all looking to the inhabitants 15 minutes to take the woof suppressing the rebellion; and it especan early engagement. Louisville is being fortified, and there was considerable excitement there yesterday. The theatre of war has been transferred, for the present at least, from Central Kentucky. It begins to be negro women and children, and directs me apparent now that the demonstrations against Cincinnati were, in the main, feints something to satisfy the public, while the to cover the combinations which the rebels are trying to effect below.

FROM CINCINNATI.—From a letter received to day by John B. Drake, Esq., of the Tromont House, from his brother in Cincinnati, we learn the following facts: Cincinnati is considered safe against any rehel attack. The fortifications on the Kentucky side extend fifteen miles back of Covington and Newport, from the river above to the river below Covington. Guns are mounted on every height in the neigh-berhood of Covington. There is, in addition, a force of at least 60,000 men, includcommand, Gen. Lew. Wallace having been transferred to another command. It is not now deemed probable that the rebels will move against Cincinnati, but if they do, we are assured they will certainly be repulsed .- Chicago Journal.

PARTY APPOINTMENTS.—As a further reply to the complaint of the News of the peculiarly republican character of the appoint ments of the assessors under the United States tax law, we learn that a position was tendered to a prominent democrat, who accepted it, but after the mandate of the late democratic convention condemning all affiliation with republicans, and insisting on strict party action, he declined the proffer. We also learn that Albert G. Knight, a prominent democrat, has been appointed deputy at Racine.

The party feeling seems to be on the other side.—Mil. Sentinel.

HEADQUARTERS OF ARMY CIRCULAR. Major General Foster, in command of he army of North Carolina, has called attention to an article in the New York Evening Post, Sept. 4th, in which is published the number and position of his troops. He remarks that the New York papers always reach the enemy in a few days after publication, and that such information from our friends is more injurious than that gained by rebel spies. The newspaper press is earnestly requested to make no publication in regard to the number and movement of our troops. No information could be more desirable to the enemy than this. —I would take the cause and leave the ef. desirable to the enemy than a night and day, feet, rather than remove the effect and leave publications have done immense injury to night and day.

To H. W. HALLECE, General-in-Chief; Yesterday was occupied in burying the dead and careing for wounded. Yesterday morning the rebels sent in a flag of truce, asking permission to bury their own dead, which was granted. At first the orders were very stringent against holding intercourse with rebels, but during the afternoon they were relaxed, and the armies freely intermingled. Lieut. Orenbog, of Seaman's Ohio battery, lost a leg. At daylight this morning it was discovered that the enemy had changed their position. Whether their whole force has crossed the river, or taken a new position near the river, is not at present known. Had the rebels remained, a general engagement between both armies would have taken place this morning.

Cassius M. Clay publishes a card to-day denying that he has ever said a word to the president about Gov. Morgan, or in favor of making him the commander of the northvestern grand division of troops. He (Clay) has never proposed any way of carrying on the war than by the constitutional authorities, nor has he desired the over hrow of President Lincoln, or the establishment of a dictatorship of Fremoni, or any other man. The wish of Gen. "Colonel Holcomb, of the First Louis iana volunteers, sent a long letter to headquarters yesterday, detailing an account of a disturbance in his camp, and stating, at the close, that he had been obliged to shoot one of the mutineers. General Butler read the paper carefully, endorsed it "shoot an other," and sent it back to the Colonel. This Jacksonian promptness of the General will do more to bring terror to the evildoers in the camp than all the thumb-tying that has taken place since the war began. The ringing endorsement "shoot another," will go from camp to camp throughout the American army; but what will the London Times say? That's the rub. That's what Judson's Mountain Herb Pills .-- Hov Judson's Mountain Horb Pills.—How strange and wenterful it often seems to us that a med leins composed of simple mountain herbs and roots, should so certainly search out and cure disease. How surprising that the Indians should know and preserve so long and well a secret that has escaped the source of the greatest physicians the world has ever seen. The, the uncled inhabitants of Mox co were a strange race, found by the Spaniards living in large cities, and allowing for their strange customs and religion as well civilized us their conquerors. In the words of a writer of sume celebrity, "They have perished from the earth, their cities are gigantle piles of ruins; their Kings and Princes so mighty in their He, are forgotten; their rapus and their medicine alone are lath." Fifth Assembly District Convention.

The Republicans of the rifth Assembly District comprising the city of Janesville, will meet in convention by their delegates, on SATURDAY, the 20th day of September, A. D. 1862, at 1 o'clock P. M., at the Court Room to elect two delegates to represent this district in the congressional district convention, to be held at Watertown, September 24th, 1862. The several wards select committee to whom was referred that in this city will be entitled to the following number of portion of the Governor's message in redelegates in said assembly district convention, to wit: First Ward, 3 Third Ward, Second Ward, 3 Fourth Word,

S. J. M. PUTNAM,

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

A Republican Convention will be held in the city of Watertown, on Wednesday, September 24th 1952, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate to Congress from the Second Congressional District. All loyal electors of the district, without regard to past political differences, who, in this hour of mational trial and peril, will sustain the state and fed eral administrations in a vigorous prosecution of the war, until rebellion is crushed, traitors punished, the integrity of the Union preserted, and the supremacy of the constitution and laws enforced and respected threi-out every state and territory included within the national boundaries, are invited to unite with the repullicans in electing delegates to this convention. Each Assembly and Senstorial district will be enritled to two delegates in sa'd convention.

B. F. HOPKINS, W. M. GRISWOLD,

LUTHER A. COLE, H. H. CILES. 3. J. TODD. Dated August 6, 1862.

Third Assembly District Convention. A Republican Convention for the Third Assembly Discrict, composed of the towns of Johnstown, Beadford, La Prairie and Clinton, will be held at Emerald Grove, on TUESDAY, the 7th day of October next, at 1 c'clock P. M., to put in nomination a candidate for assemblyman for said district. Each town will be entitled to five delegates.

D. L. HOPSON.
R. T. PEMARK.
S. S. NORTHRUP,
Dist. Com. Dated September 17th, 1852.

THE REASON FOR IT .- A democrat of this city is responsible for the following reason why we are now driving the rebels across the Potomac into Virginia, when it has been generally reported that they were anxiously striving to get there and we were as earnestly endeavoring to preven them doing so. According to the platform prepared by E. G. Ryan for the democratic state convention, and adopted by that convention, it is unconstitutional to arrest any man in a loyal state without a civil process. Maryland being a loyal and Virginia a disloyal state, the rebels are to be driven into the latter state in order that they may be captured in a constitutional and democratic manner. This theory is logical, at all events, and if the rebels are captured after crossing the Potomac, we presume even Mr. Ryan will take no exceptions to the manner of executing the process.

First Assembly District.

At a convention of the first assembly district, for the nomination of two delegates to the Watertown convention, A. W. Pope called the convention to order. Wm. A. Norton was called to the chair, and D. F. Sayre secretary. After the usual preliminary business, the convention proceeded to elect delegates to Watertown, and on motion the vote was taken by acclamantion. Ezra A. Foote and Anson W. Pope were unanimously elected. On motion, convention adjourned. W. A. NORTON, Ch'n.

DAYID F. SAYRE, Sec y.

BAPTIST SABBATH SCHOOL .- The pastor preaches to the children to morrow morning. The school is expected to furnish music for the morning service. As many as can meet the choir at 8 o'clock this evening are requested to do so, and all to be prompt at the morning service. O. J. DEARBORN, Sapt.

The County Convention.

The county ticket nominated by the republican convention which met at daneaville yesterday will be found in another place. We have not space this week for the full proceedings of the convention. We are well satisfied with the ticket, and place it at the head of our columns with pleasure. The choice of the Belcit delegation for sheriff was J. B. Colley, who re ceived a flattering vote against his success ful competitor; but in view of the fact that two of our citizens were nominated to important offices, and the character of all the nominees, we do not feel disposed to complain in this matter. S. L. James, who has already held the office of clerk of the board for two terms, is renominated. Mr. James is well qualified for his position, and has always given universal satisfaction.

C. C. Keeler, the nomines for register of deels, is popular wherever known, and his many friends in the county, and especially in this place, his home, will beceive his nomination with pleasure and satisfaction Mr. Keeler's thorough business habits, his experience as bookkeeper and service as city clerk, eminently fit him for this office. Probably a more harmonious convention has never been held in this county. The bitter feeling which has heretofore existed between the delegations from Beloit and Janesville was not at all manifest on this occasion. A strong ticket is presented to the voters of Rock county for their support in the coming fall election. The campaign is opened, good men are in the field, and it is our duty to give them our active support. -Beloit Journal.

Our Candidate for Senator. In another column will be found the pro-osedings of the senatorial convention, au nouncing the nomination of Wm. A. Lawrence for sensior from this county. Mr. Lawrence is a resident of Janesville and among his fellow citizens stands high as a business man and neighbor. He is not of that class of men usually denominated "blowers," being given more to doing than talking, and has had previous legislative experience, having before represented his city at Madison with honor and ability.

—Beloit Journal.

Legislative.

In the SENATE, on the 13th, the follow | CABINET MAKERS, ing bills were passed:

This bill provides for paying all the new evies the state bounty of $5 per month until the first of January next, at which time done in the most approved manner, on the shortest no-tice, the amount shall be reduced to $3 per month, to be paid alike to men in the old and new regiments.] To revise the laws relative to the militia. Contained in this bill is a provision for a commission of three members to sit not longer than thirty days at the capital, and to receive $3 per diem for their services.]

To authorize the issuing of bonds for war purposes to the amount of $250,000. In the ASSEMBLY, the majority of the select committee to whom was referred that gard to the extension of the right of suffrage to volunteers, reported back the Senate bill, with sundry amendments, and recommended its passage as amended. The minority of said committee, Messrs.

McLean, Dutcher and Tripp, submitted a lengthy minority report against its passage. The bill was made the special order for ll o'clock, Saturday. Senate bill to authorize the county of Rock to raise money to pay bounties to volunteers, was taken up.

A motion to suspend the roles and put the bill on its passage prevailed. It was then read a third time and passed by the following vote: ayes, 64; noes, 14. An amendment to the bill extending aid to volunteers, providing that $3 per month should be paid, was lost.

Circular to Physicians and Others.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 1, 1862.
The undersigned respectfully calls the a roution of the Mencal Fronty of the United States, to the following correspondence between a number of the most respectable and influential physicians of New York and arocklyn, and the writer.

Will. T. CUITER, Jr.

promble and influential physicians of New York and arocklyn, and the writer. Wil. T. GUTTER, Jr., MEW YORK, May 1, 1861.

Mr. Wot. T. Cutter, Jr., Loadsuite, Ky:—
Dean Sir:—The great authority experienced in procuring Brandy sufficiently pure for medicinal purposes, has induced many of the physicians of this veinity to sciout Boand on Whaky as a set sature, both in the boards and private practice; and, since the latter has come into such general use, we have reason to believe that a great deal now sold is of very inferior quality. Presuming that your residence in the vicinity of the manufacturers of Whisky in Kentucky, as well as your skill as a chemist, will enable you to select a reliable article, and baving full confidence in your integrity, we are led to enquire whether you will not aid usin having this marker supplied, through an agency, with the best quality of Pure old Bourbon Whisky for the use of the sick. We not, very respectfully, sir, yourstruly, YALENTINE MOTT, M. D., WILLARD PARRER, M. D., L. MITOGLELL, M. D., C. L. MITOGLELL, M. D., C. L. MITOGLELL, M. D., ERANCIS H. HAMILTON, M. D., DEWITT C.
